1.1 Storage Items

1.1.1 Acceptable items include: Luggage, boxes, large plastic garbage bags, small appliances, study materials, and electronics.
1.1.2 Prohibited items: perishables, flammable materials, illegal substances, weapons, or any hazardous items
1.1.3 All items must be properly packed and stored in suitable containers to ensure safety, prevent damage, and allow official name tags to be attached for proper identification.

1.2 Storage Rights.

1.2.1 The Storage reserves the right to refuse prohibited or unsafe items.
1.2.2 The Storage may inspect items if there is suspicion of illegal, perishable or dangerous contents.
1.2.3 If perishable items are discovered after storage has commenced, the Storage reserves the right to remove and dispose of such items immediately, without compensation to the student.
1.2.4 Excessive quantities of similar items may be deemed suspicious and suggest storing for others or possible involvement in unlawful activities(look up Section 6)

2. Duration of Storage

2.1 Storage will commence on:____ / ____/ 2025
2.2 Storage will end on: 23rd FEBRUARY 2026 (unless extended by agreement).

3. Fees and Payment

3.1 The student agrees to pay a once-off, upfront storage fee of:

R _____. (AMOUNT IN FIGURES) [Including Deposit Paid]

R_____ (AMOUNT IN WORDS).

3.2 No items will be accepted into storage until full payment has been received.

3.3 Collection fees from your place of residence are included.

3.4 Payments are non-refundable after seven (7) days, even if the student collects belongings earlier than agreed. (this also includes in a case of Section 6 and 10)

4. Inventory List

4.1 An inventory list of all items stored will be prepared.

4.2 Both the Student and the Storage representative must sign the list as proof of items handed over, which will also include photos (valuable electronics), these photos will be scanned together with the contract.

4.3 A Google drive folder will be created and shared with the student which will contain this Agreement form together with the proof of payment(also the one for deposit if applicable) and the photos taken.

5. Condition of Items

5.1 The student confirms that all items handed in are in good working condition (unless otherwise noted).

5.2 The Storage will take photographs of electronic items upon handover as proof of condition.

5.3 The Storage will not be held responsible for faults or damage that existed before storage.

6. Prohibition on Storing for Other Persons or Excessive Quantities

6.1 The Student may only store items that they personally own and reasonably require for personal use.

6.2 The deposit of excessive quantities of similar items (for example, multiple suitcases of clothes, unusually large number of blankets, unreasonably many kitchen sets/pots, more than one fridge, or more than one laptop) may be deemed suspicious and may suggest that the Student is storing items on behalf of others, which will be regarded as fraudulent, scam-related activity, or an attempt to take advantage of the Storage Service. In this case the Storage will reject to store such items.

6.2 If, items have already been deposited, and the Storage(while packing/name tagging) discovers an unreasonable number or quantity of items, this will be treated as grounds for suspicion. Where there is reasonable belief that such items may be stolen, unlawfully obtained (including from other students), or intentionally hidden in the Storage to conceal evidence of theft, the Storage reserves the right to report the matter to the relevant authorities unless legitimate ownership is proven(Student is storing items on behalf of others). This ensures that the Storage is not implicated in, or accused, of any unlawful activity.

6.3 Where the Storage reasonably suspects such conduct, it reserves the right to:

a) Refuse to accept the items, or suspend access to items already stored;

b) Require the Student to provide proof of ownership or written authorization from the true owner(s);

c) Where the true owner is identified, the Storage require such owner to settle all applicable storage fee of R700, a penalty fee R220, and administrative costs before the items are released;

d) Terminate this Agreement and retain the items until ownership is proven or the matter is resolved;

7. Liability

7.1 The Storage will take full responsibility for the safety of stored electronic items.
7.2 If an electronic item is lost while in the Storage's care, the student will be compensated at fair market value.
7.3 The Storage shall take liability only for significant damage directly resulting from proven/reasonable negligence or mishandling by its authorized personnel.
Notwithstanding the foregoing, Storage shall not be held liable for any damage or loss arising from poor or inadequate packaging, pest infestation, natural disasters, acts of God, or any circumstances beyond its reasonable control, nor shall it be responsible for ordinary wear and tear, minor abrasions, or the natural deterioration of stored items. Fragile items such as mirrors, plates, and glassware must be securely packaged and properly protected before storage to prevent damage.
7.4 Electrical appliances and electronic items are stored at the owner's risk. The Storage shall not be responsible for any functional failure, battery depletion, or mechanical defect arising from disuse, age, or environmental conditions during the storage period, unless such damage resulted from negligence or mishandling by Storage personnel.
